Mr. A. T. Laine,

Faculty of Applied Science.

Dear Mr. Laine:

I have seen Mr. Campbell about the keys for Miss Rickard and Miss Cave, and he assures me that these are the same keys that are given to demonstrators, and that it is only a few of the professors who have the keys for which you ask, which admit practically to the whole building. I suppose that the number of occasions on which the key is used is probably very small.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

Dear Mr. Laing:

I am sending you some communications I have had from the Deputy Minister of Marine with regard to the recognition of a course given in the Naval College at Halifax. I believe that the Dean is absent, unwell. Will you kindly look through this and ask him to consider it as soon as he returns, as I wish to send an answer to the Deputy Minister?

Yours sincerely,

President.
